

June 10, 1999

WASHINGTON -- Congressman John W. Olver (1st District) announced today that the House

Congressman Olver is a member of the House Transportation Appropriation Subcommittee and Public transportation is vital to residents in rural communities because it provides access to

I am pleased to have worked with GMTA to make certain that the public transportation needs

The new vehicles are estimated to cost $264,000 each which includes two-way mobile radio

###